

LLOYD and MARILYN SCHMALTZ

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH FUND

ANNOUNCEMENT FOR 2008 AWARD

The Lloyd and Marilyn Schmaltz Fund is a research-oriented, undergraduate support fund available to registered undergraduate students in our department. The fund is intended to support undergraduate student research activities, including travel to meetings for presentations, and is intended to augment funds requested from other available undergraduate student support funds (i.e. GSA, WMU Honors College, etc.)

Consideration for funds is based on submission of a research proposal that has been submitted to any other undergraduate student-oriented research funding agency (see above).

The deadline for submission of requests for funds from the Schmaltz fund is Monday, March 31, 2008.

Please submit a letter of intent to the department office along with:

- 1) a copy of the research proposal(s) submitted to any other granting agency for the proposed research activities, and*
- 2) response (including award amount) from other proposal(s)*
